STUDENTS

Thank You for Requesting Classes!

Students requested courses on Daedalus. Daedalus closed on April 21.

Students were able to make informed decisions by reviewing the sequencing charts and course enrollment criteria at LaProgram.org.

On Thursday, May 23, each 9th, 10th, and 11th grade student will receive a paper version of requested classes. If a student has questions about course requests, he or she may see a guidance counselor on Tuesday, May 28 (11th); Wednesday, May 29 (10th); or Thursday, May 30 (9th).

Please note that no student may request a course after the April 21 deadline.

If you have any questions regarding information on this page, please call Ms. van Keulen, AP of Data and Technology, at (212) 496-0700 X 2261.

TEACHERS

Interim Progress Reports

LaGuardia educators have found that Interim Progress Reports can send a strong message about student performance. You may pick up forms from your department chairperson. They are due on Tuesday, April 30.

AP Proctoring Schedule

The revised proctoring schedule for Advanced Placement examinations will be made available to teachers shortly. Teachers should review the schedule when they take it from the mailbox. Anyone with questions should contact Ms. van Keulen at Ivankeu@schools.nyc.gov.

Be Ready to Get Your AP[®] Scores in July

Beginning in July of this year, you will get your AP scores online. Since you won't receive scores in the mail, there are a few things you'll need to do to get ready.

Sign Up

1. Sign up for an account at apscore.org (it's free).

Get your College Board account now so you'll be ready to get your scores online in July. You will not receive your scores in the mail, and you'll need this account to access them. Once you sign up, you will receive emails about how and when to access your scores. It's best to sign up for an account now to make getting scores in July as quick and easy as possible.

You may already have an account if you've ever registered for the SAT[®] or participated in other College Board programs. Try signing in at apscore.org to find out.

Remember

2. Remember this information.

Once you've taken your exams and created an account, remember your College Board account username and password, and one of the following:

- Your AP[®] number — you'll find it on the label in your AP Student Pack at exam time OR
- Your student identifier (student ID number) if you put it on your AP answer sheet at exam time

Receive

3. Wait for an email — then receive your scores online.

You will receive an email after the exam period letting you know how and when to access your scores.

More information will also be posted on apscore.org, so be sure to check there periodically.

Keep this information handy and be sure to sign up now for your free College Board account at apscore.org so you can access your AP scores in July!
